

Brigitte L. Lank Ph.D.
Clinical Psychologist
License # 20599

Psychotherapy, Individual, Couple & Family Consultation

The Marinwood Professional Center, 2400 Las Gallinas Avenue, Suite 160, San Rafael, CA 94903
Phone: 415.272.7758

Quiz: Relationship Vulnerability Map

Directions: Check the appropriate number to the left of each statement:

1 = No, disagree completely

2 = Yes,
agree
somewhat

3 = Yes,
agree completely

NA = Not applicable

- 1 2 3 NA 1. We had problems trusting each other before we got married.
- 1 2 3 NA 2. Our marriage revolves around our children.
or (for childless couples)
We disagree on whether or not to have children.
- 1 2 3 NA 3. My partner spends too much time away from home.
- 1 2 3 NA 4. My partner rarely takes my side in anything.
- 1 2 3 NA 5. We've grown apart.
- 1 2 3 NA 6. I have felt alone and unsupported at times of loss or crises.
- 1 2 3 NA 7. We don't have equal input for important decisions.
- 1 2 3 NA 8. We argue about the frequency of sex.

Brigitte L. Lank Ph.D.
Clinical Psychologist
License # 20599

Psychotherapy, Individual, Couple & Family Consultation

The Marinwood Professional Center, 2400 Las Gallinas Avenue, Suite 160, San Rafael, CA 94903
Phone: 415.272.7758

- NA
- 1 2 3 9. Our interactions feel more like a parent-child relationship than one between equals.
 NA
- 1 2 3 10. We are uncomfortable about exposing our inner selves to each other.
 NA
- 1 2 3 11. We sweep things under the rug so we hardly ever fight.
 NA
- 1 2 3 12. There's a disparity in how invested we are in the relationship.
 NA
- 1 2 3 13. I feel I can't influence my partner to do what I request.
 NA
- 1 2 3 14. I don't know if I really love my partner.
 NA
- 1 2 3 15. We don't know how to repair after a conflict.
 NA
- 1 2 3 16. We don't have much in common.
 NA

Scoring Key: Add up your total number of points to interpret your relationship vulnerability score.

16 - 20 = A safe harbor

21 - 29 = Choppy waters

30 - 39 = Rough seas

40 - 48 = Watch out! You're headed for the rocks.

Brigitte L. Lank Ph.D.
Clinical Psychologist
License # 20599

Psychotherapy, Individual, Couple & Family Consultation

The Marinwood Professional Center, 2400 Las Gallinas Avenue, Suite 160, San Rafael, CA 94903
Phone: 415.272.7758

Adapted for clinical use: Glass, S.P. (2004). Not Just Friends. London: Free Press

Take another look at those statements that you rated 2 or 3. You and your partner can work on these issues to build a better marriage. Sharing your responses will give you another way to discuss your marital lifeline and the relationship patterns that have been discussed in this chapter.

It's important to realize that your relationship vulnerability score is not a predictor of infidelity. It is an assessment of your marital adjustment. Remember that affairs can and do happen in good relationships. Even a score that indicates high vulnerability does not mean that infidelity is inevitable. Just as there are happily married people who are unfaithful, there are also many dissatisfied individuals who remain faithful because of individual or cultural factors. The Relationship Vulnerability Map is one component that should be considered along with the Individual Vulnerability Map and the Social Vulnerability Map.

There's no way to predict with certainty whether a specific couple is "-affair--proof." Responding to the statements below will help identify relationship vulnerabilities that make marriages susceptible.

There's no way to predict with certainty whether a specific individual is going to be unfaithful. Responding to the statements below will help identify attitudes and personality characteristics that increase an individual's vulnerability to opportunities for extramarital involvement.